↑ ARDEN FABRIC

Take the opportunity for forest bathing indoors. This new, 100% linen fabric from Colefax & Fowler depicts an evocative woodland scene, inspired by 18th-century tapestries. It is hard to know whether Puck or Artemis is more likely to step out from behind the curtain (repeat 84cm; width 140cm).

↑ ↘ HUNTING LODGE

A repository for trophies, a sanctuary, a conversation piece... To Eric J Smith, "the word 'Lodge' immediately conjures up a warm, inviting, wood-finished room, with an old floor that can take some abuse from coming and going outside and furniture that you can put your feet up onto without being frowned at". He has created a perfect example, "reflecting its history, welcoming today's lifestyle" from New York.
